

SALES & OPERATIONS PLANNING

Faculty: DR RICHARD PIBERNIK

	1	2	3	4	5	YES	NO
How relevant is the overall course content to the program?				3 (14%)	19 (86%)
Does the course content allow you to think in a critical manner?				5 (23%)	17 (77%)
How effective are the assessment methods used for the course?				5 (23%)	17 (77%)
What is your assessment of the readings and assignments?				5 (23%)	17 (77%)
What is your assessment of the quality of the class discussions?				2 (9%)	20 (91%)
What is your assessment of the pace of the lectures?				3 (14%)	19 (86%)
What is your assessment of the presentation of the course material?				5 (23%)	17 (77%)
To what extent is the instructor able to stimulate students interest in the course?				1 (5%)	21 (95%)
How effective is the instructor in explaining difficult concepts?				2 (9%)	20 (91%)
What is your assessment of the quality of instructor's response to student's questions and comments?				1 (5%)	21 (95%)
How do you rate instructor's enthusiasm?				1 (5%)	21 (95%)
What is the level of interest of the instructor in students' progress and learning?				3 (14%)	19 (86%)
Does the instructor provide practical examples?				2 (9%)	20 (91%)
Are you able to communicate with the instructor outside of the classroom?				4 (18%)	18 (82%)
Does the instructor provide feedback?						22 (100%)
If feedback is provided, how regular is it?			2 (9%)	5 (23%)	15 (68%)
Overall, what is your assessment of the instructor?				3 (14%)	19 (86%)

Comments:

- * Enjoyed the sessions! Very enriching experience
- * He made us discussed in a small groups which was very good. Students had an opportunity to speak up in the sessions.
- * Great case studies & explanations
- * New insights for S&OP, oragnizational management.
- * One of the best visiting faculty.
- * Excellent knowledge & sharing from the faculty.
- * Great sharing on the real life experience in supply chain projects.
- * Pushy! Best instructor so far!
- * He was really good & knew what he was talking in the sessions