

SC INFORMATION SYSTEMS, INTEGRATED PLANNING & THE ORGANIZATION

PROGRAM: MSCM/PSCM

QUARTER: 1/2020

FACULTY: DR. RICHARD PIBERNIK

	1	2	3	4	5
FACTORS IN LEARNING
Relevance of the course content to the program?					14 (100%)
Does the course content allow you to think in a critical manner?				2 (14%)	12 (86%)
How effective are the assessment methods used for the course?				2 (14%)	12 (86%)
Readings and assignments				3 (21%)	11 (79%)
Presentation of the course material				2 (14%)	12 (86%)
QUALITY OF TEACHING
Is the instructor able to stimulate students interest in the course?				2 (14%)	12 (86%)
How effective is the instructor in explaining difficult concepts?				2 (14%)	12 (86%)
Instructor's response to student's questions and comments				2 (14%)	12 (86%)
Quality of the class discussions				2 (14%)	12 (86%)
Pace of the lectures				2 (14%)	12 (86%)
INSTRUCTOR
The instructor's knowledge of the topic				2 (14%)	12 (86%)
Instructor's enthusiasm				2 (14%)	12 (86%)
Interest of the instructor in students' progress and learning				2 (14%)	12 (86%)
Instructor's practical examples				2 (14%)	12 (86%)
Are you able to communicate with the instructor outside of the classroom?				2 (14%)	12 (86%)
Does the instructor provide regular feedback?				2 (14%)	12 (86%)
Overall assessment of the instructor				2 (14%)	12 (86%)

Comments:

- * Great
- * Excellent
- * Richard showed/discussed real case studies that he implemented (or not) and this is quite more clear & relevant than normal cases.
- * Very stimulating class & amazing lecture on soft part of the business. All the project & case discussed was very interesting
- * Brought a lot of experience & challenges for discussion which able to relate to current work.
- * Enthusiastic & excellent instructor. Hope he can come again to MISI
- * Very useful & interesting course and close to practice.
- * 10/10! Thank you Dr Pibernik.
- * Excellent & detail cases & scenarios
- * The content was very useful & helped a lot. Many thanks to Dr Pibernik.